NCLT Reopens Subhash Chandra Insolvency

On 4 September 2026, the NCLT constituted a five-member bench to rehear Subhash Chandra's personal-insolvency matter and halted the earlier repayment-plan order. Claims of approximately ₹22,006.57 crore include RBL Bank, Canara Bank and Union Bank, against a proposed repayment of ₹6.25 crore, while Chandra challenges the bench before the NCLAT.

THE READ

Verdict first: creditor scrutiny has reset the process. The restraint on alienating property makes asset disclosure, creditor voting and the split decision the decisive battleground.

Bombay HC Quashes Coda Account Freeze

On 2 September 2026, the Bombay High Court in Coda Payments India Pvt. Ltd. v. Deputy Director, Directorate of Enforcement quashed the freeze of approximately ₹100 crore in Coda's Indian bank and payment-aggregator accounts. Justices A.S. Gadkari and Kamal Khata held that turnover or foreign remittances alone could not establish proceeds of crime, and that the required Section 8(2) PMLA finding was absent.

THE READ

Verdict first: the ED cannot convert scale of business into proof of tainted property. The ruling raises the evidentiary threshold for freezing operating balances and sharpens proportionality challenges under PMLA.

Slice Raises $100 Million At $450 Million

On 3 September 2026, banking fintech Slice raised $100 million, including a secondary component, at an approximately $450 million valuation. Neo Wealth, Japan's Kado Global and US-based Moore Strategic Ventures participated, with roughly $20–25 million reportedly coming from Neo Wealth and its HNI and UHNI investor pool.

THE READ

Verdict first: the financing restores capital access but confirms a steep repricing. Slice's valuation is approximately 68% below its former $1.4 billion level as it funds its post-merger small-finance-bank model.

Aditya Birla Secures ₹24,000 Crore Commitments

On 3 September 2026, Aditya Birla Renewables Ltd. reportedly secured up to ₹24,000 crore in bank commitments to acquire Solenergi Power Pvt. Ltd., which controls Shell's Indian renewable platform including Sprng Energy. Axis Bank and State Bank of India each offered up to ₹7,000 crore, while Union Bank of India and Punjab National Bank offered approximately ₹5,000 crore each, against an intended financing need of about ₹14,000 crore.

THE READ

Verdict first: lenders are testing the RBI's new acquisition-finance regime at scale. The excess commitment capacity signals bank appetite for renewable-platform consolidation, while leaving execution and leverage discipline under scrutiny.

CCI Clears TPG-Led Aseem Infrastructure Acquisition

On 2 September 2026, the Competition Commission of India approved TPG Nicobar SG Pte. Ltd.'s acquisition of Aseem Infrastructure Finance Ltd. The approved structure includes a subsequent minority investment by ICICI Bank, Aseem's divestment of its NIIF Infrastructure Finance holding to NIIF Infrastructure Fund II, and the merger of Climate Finance India Pvt. Ltd. into Aseem.

THE READ

Verdict first: the clearance enables a layered ownership reset of a regulated infrastructure-finance platform. Private-equity control, bank participation, NIIF-linked divestment and NBFC consolidation now move into implementation.

THE THROUGH-LINE

The week's signal is disciplined restructuring under tighter institutional scrutiny. Tribunals and courts are testing the evidentiary and procedural limits of insolvency and enforcement power, while capital is returning selectively to regulated finance, fintech and renewable assets. Across all five moves, valuation, ownership and creditor protection are being reset rather than merely expanded.
