INSOLVENCY · NCLT MUMBAI

Dharan Infra stays in insolvency despite Tata Capital settlement

NCLT Mumbai, Judicial Member Vinay Goel and Technical Member Charanjeet Singh Gulati, refused to let Dharan Infra-EPC Limited exit insolvency after a Rs 10 crore full and final settlement with Tata Capital Housing Finance, the lender that started the case on a Rs 28.04 crore default, in an order reported on 7 November 2026. Six other financial creditors opposed the withdrawal, with total claims on the company reported at about Rs 600 crore.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Promoters hoping to win back control by paying off only the lender who dragged them to NCLT are exposed. Check this week what every other creditor is owed before you wire a settlement to the petitioner.

SECURITIES · SEBI

SEBI's new settlement regime starts, excludes wilful defaulters

SEBI's Settlement of Administrative and Civil Proceedings Regulations 2026 came into force on 7 November 2026, replacing the 2018 framework, as reported by Moneycontrol on 8 November. The route is not open to everyone: specified wilful defaulter, fraudulent borrower and fugitive economic offender matters are excluded from settlement.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Promoters and directors of listed companies with a pending SEBI notice are exposed, especially anyone carrying a wilful default or bank fraud tag anywhere in the group. Check this week whether your matter still qualifies to settle, because an exclusion means you must contest it to the end.

ARBITRATION · DELHI HIGH COURT

Jaksons keeps Rs 9.30 crore guarantee money plus interest

The Delhi High Court, Justices Dinesh Mehta and Aditi Choudhary, dismissed the Delhi Development Authority's appeal against release to Jaksons Developers of Rs 9.30 crore in bank guarantee proceeds together with the interest actually earned on the fixed deposit holding that money, in a ruling reported on 7 November 2026. The dispute concerns a Rohini hotel project tied to the 2010 Commonwealth Games, and the court separately rejected Jaksons' claim for 18 percent interest on the award.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Developers and contractors whose bank guarantees were encashed by a government body during a dispute are exposed to losing years of interest on that money. Check this week where your encashed guarantee funds are parked and whether the deposit interest is being tracked for your benefit.

ENFORCEMENT · KARNATAKA HIGH COURT

Karnataka HC quashes ED case, orders seized property returned

Justice M.I. Arun of the Karnataka High Court quashed the Enforcement Directorate's money laundering case, called an ECIR, against K.Y. Nanjegowda and connected petitioners, set aside a seizure confirmation and directed return of the seized articles, as reported on 7 November 2026. The court acted because the underlying criminal case, involving allegations around the Kolar-Chikkaballapur District Cooperative Milk Producers Union and a land matter, had closed after prosecution sanction was never obtained.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Families and promoters facing an ED case whose original police or CBI case has stalled, closed or lacks sanction are exposed, and may hold the key to unlocking seized assets. Check this week the exact status of the underlying offence behind any ECIR naming you or your company.

M&A · ADANI ENTERPRISES FILING

AdaniConneX pays Rs 1,085 crore for promoter's Vizag company

AdaniConneX, an Adani Enterprises joint venture, signed an agreement on 5 November 2026 to buy 100 percent of Vizag Mega Data Center Park Limited from promoter group entity Adani Infra India for Rs 1,085.51 crore in cash, with completion expected by 10 November, per the filing reported by CNBC-TV18 on 6 November. The target owns a land parcel and key licences but has no turnover and has not begun operations, and the filing describes the deal as arm's length and not a related party transaction for Adani Enterprises under SEBI listing rules.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Listed company boards and minority investors are exposed wherever a promoter sells a pre-revenue asset into the listed group for a large cash price. Check this week how any promoter-side asset transfer in your group is valued and whether its related party classification would survive a SEBI or shareholder challenge.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Every item today turns on who else has a claim when you think the matter is closed: the other creditors behind the settled lender, the dead criminal case behind the ED, the minority behind a promoter sale. Before you pay, settle or sell this week, map every party with a stake, not just the one across the table.
