

INDIAN LAW & DEALMAKING · 6 SEPTEMBER 2026

Five moves shaping the board now.

- › Supreme Court expands RBI cooperative powers
- › Chennai NCLT dismisses EY insolvency claim
- › BNP and Goldman buy Swiggy shares
- › Mohali court convicts in PMLA case
- › Supreme Court allows Energy Watchdog participation

SWIPE →

Supreme Court Expands RBI Power Over Cooperative Banks

On 4 September 2026, the Supreme Court held in Sandeep S. Ghandat and Others versus Reserve Bank of India and Others that the central bank can supersede multi-State cooperative bank boards for over six months without mandatory State consultation.

THE READ

This ruling consolidates apex regulatory dominance over cooperative banking frameworks. Financial institutions must now anticipate unmitigated federal intervention during governance crises.

NCLT CHENNAI · INSOLVENCY LAW

02 / 05

NCLT Rejects EY Insolvency Claim Against Mobase

On 5 September 2026, NCLT Chennai dismissed Ernst and Young LLP versus Mobase Electronics India, rejecting a Section 9 IBC petition for roughly ₹3.11 crore due to a genuine debt dispute over professional success fees.

THE READ

Creditors cannot weaponize insolvency proceedings to bypass disputed commercial contracts. Professional service firms face strict judicial skepticism when enforcing contingency fees through the IBC.

BNP Paribas and Goldman Sachs Acquire Swiggy Shares

On 4 September 2026, BNP Paribas Financial Markets and Goldman Sachs Investments Mauritius I acquired a combined 1.36 percent stake in Swiggy for ₹1,041 crore through open-market bulk deals at ₹276.10 per share.

THE READ

Massive institutional block transactions validate underlying tech valuations and boost secondary liquidity. Large capital inflows signal enduring foreign portfolio confidence in listed Indian consumer internet giants.

Mohali Court Convicts Two in Cocaine Linked Laundering

On 3 September 2026, a Special PMLA Court in Mohali convicted Dara Singh and Gurdarshan Singh under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, sentencing each to three years rigorous imprisonment and a fine.

THE READ

Courts continue to treat transactional cheques as proceeds of crime under Section 3 despite ongoing underlying criminal proceedings. Financial compliance officers must monitor asset trails exposed to parallel criminal investigations.

SUPREME COURT · PUBLIC INTEREST LAW

05 / 05

Supreme Court Allows Energy Watchdog Participation

On 4 September 2026, the Supreme Court permitted the NGO Energy Watchdog to participate in proceedings regarding unauthorized electricity usage in Amalgam Steels and Power Limited versus Energy Watchdog.

THE READ

This decision expands public interest locus standi in complex commercial and regulatory utility disputes. Industrial operators must prepare for heightened civil society oversight during enforcement actions.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Regulatory intervention and institutional capital flows dominated legal developments this week across banking and corporate markets. Judicial bodies continued to draw strict boundaries around commercial debt enforcement while broadening access for public watchdogs. Practitioners must navigate tighter federal oversight and heightened scrutiny of professional service contracts.

OWN THE BRIEF

Get this brief every day, before the feed does.

Free. One message a day. No noise.

SCAN THE CHANNEL YOU USE →

WhatsApp Channel

whatsapp.com/channel

Telegram Channel

t.me/tarkabrief