Byju's: NCLT freezes the bidding while a 99% claim is contested

The NCLT (Bengaluru) directed the resolution professional not to issue Form G or finalise the applicant list until 31 August, on the founders' challenge to GLAS Trust's admitted claim of about Rs 11,433 crore, which carries over 99% of the CoC vote.

THE READ

When one admitted claim controls the vote, the fight moves to admission itself. Value discovery stalls until that claim is settled.

SEBI moves to widen where your portfolio manager can invest

On 23 July SEBI proposed letting portfolio managers deploy client funds into to-be-listed securities and overseas listed equity and debt, among other assets, widening the PMS mandate.

Mandate language and client disclosures get redrawn before the freedom is usable. The opportunity sits behind the paperwork.

ARBITRATION · BOMBAY HC

An award set aside for sitting in appeal over an appellate order

The Bombay High Court set aside a Rs 4.93 crore NCDEX arbitral award (Anand Rathi Share & Stock Brokers), holding the tribunal had wrongly sat in appeal over an Appellate Tribunal order.

THE READ

A tribunal that exceeds its remit hands the losing side its Section 34 ground. Jurisdiction discipline is the whole game.

IndiGo places a record order: 1,000+ CFM LEAP-1A engines

On 20 July IndiGo signed an MoU with CFM International for over 1,000 LEAP-1A engines plus repair support, reported as a record order for the engine-maker.

THE READ

India's aviation build-out is a multi-decade contract and financing story now, not a headline. The value is in the long-dated terms.

ENFORCEMENT · ED / PMLA

The ED's crypto-hawala case reaches a Dubai resident

The ED (Goa) arrested Dubai resident Nihal V.N. under the PMLA in a crypto-hawala and narcotics money-laundering syndicate case; the PMLA court remanded him to ED custody until 28 July.

THE READ

Crypto-hawala plus cross-border residence is the ED's growing template. Custody-first signals the asset trace is already running.

THE THROUGH-LINE

One pattern ran through the week: the decisive move keeps sitting upstream of the headline. In the admitted claim, the mandate language, the tribunal's remit, the long-dated term, the custody clock. Whoever controls the setup controls the outcome.
