

INDIAN LAW & DEALMAKING · 11 SEPTEMBER 2026

Five moves shaping the board now.

- › Adani Airports secures 9,825 crore primary equity
- › Supreme Court sets NCLAT appeal limitation rule
- › NCLAT revives Genius Exports corporate insolvency
- › Karnataka High Court seeks response on WinZO assets
- › SEBI settles PMC disclosure case for Adani executives

SWIPE →

Adani Airports Secures 9,825 Crore Equity Infusion

On 9 September 2026, Adani Airport Holdings signed binding agreements to raise 9,825 crore through fresh equity. Alpha Wave Global, Premji Invest, Temasek, and BlackRock-managed funds will take a 5.54 percent stake at an 18 billion dollar pre-money valuation.

THE READ

This transaction establishes a major institutional valuation benchmark for Indian aviation infrastructure. Adani retains firm operational control while securing essential expansion capital.

APPELLATE · SUPREME COURT

02 / 05

Supreme Court Fixes NCLAT Appeal Limitation Trigger

On 10 September 2026, the Supreme Court ruled in Employee Provident Fund Organisation v. VAS Data Services that the limitation period for NCLAT appeals begins when the order is provided under NCLAT rules. The period does not wait for a certified copy.

THE READ

This verdict curtails dilatory tactics in insolvency appeals and enforces strict procedural finality. Litigants must act immediately upon order receipt rather than delaying application processes.

INSOLVENCY · NCLAT NEW DELHI

03 / 05

NCLAT Revives Genius Exports Insolvency Resolution

On 9 September 2026, the NCLAT held that the death of a resolution applicant before plan approval does not automatically trigger corporate debtor liquidation. The ruling addressed a pending Section 12A withdrawal application for Genius Exports.

THE READ

This decision prioritizes commercial rescue and settlement over mechanical liquidation. Courts will safeguard viable resolution paths despite the unexpected demise of individual applicants.

ENFORCEMENT · KARNATAKA HIGH COURT

04 / 05

Karnataka High Court Examines WinZO Asset Attachment

On 11 September 2026, the Karnataka High Court sought responses from the Enforcement Directorate and Adjudicating Authority regarding Winzo US Inc. v. Union of India. The petition challenges a provisional PMLA attachment of 505 crore against foreign subsidiaries.

THE READ

This litigation will test the jurisdictional reach of PMLA enforcement against foreign subsidiaries of Indian gaming firms. Cross-border asset protection remains a high-stakes battleground.

REGULATORY · SEBI

05 / 05

SEBI Settles PMC Projects Disclosure Case for Executives

On 10 September 2026, SEBI approved settlements for Adani Ports CEO Karan Adani and former CFO B. Ravi regarding PMC Projects transactions. Each executive paid 13.65 lakh to close the regulatory proceedings.

THE READ

Although the financial penalty is modest, the closure removes lingering governance overhang for key leadership. It underscores SEBI strictness on related-party disclosure compliance.

THE THROUGH-LINE

This week highlights a decisive push toward procedural rigor across Indian boardrooms and tribunals. From strict NCLAT limitation rules to aggressive PMLA asset scrutiny and major equity benchmarks, regulators and courts are demanding absolute transparency and swift execution. Dealmakers must tighten compliance architectures to navigate this unforgiving regulatory climate successfully.

OWN THE BRIEF

Get this brief every day, before the feed does.

Free. One message a day. No noise.

SCAN THE CHANNEL YOU USE →

WhatsApp Channel

whatsapp.com/channel

Telegram Channel

t.me/tarkabrief