ENFORCEMENT · DELHI HIGH COURT

Delhi HC lets Commander Realtors swap ED-attached land

In a decision dated 5 November 2026 and reported on 10 November, Justice Amit Mahajan allowed Commander Realtors Pvt Ltd v. Union of India, letting the company replace land attached by the Enforcement Directorate with other Punjab and Haryana properties worth about ₹1,062.89 crore. The relief comes with conditions on title, a bar on selling the substitute properties and other safeguards, after reconciliation cut the alleged proceeds of crime from ₹1,813.74 crore to ₹1,017.19 crore.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Promoters and family offices whose land or project assets are under an ED attachment, which is a freeze pending a money laundering case, are the most exposed. This week, check whether you hold clean-title assets of matching value that you could offer as a substitute to free up the asset your business depends on.

ARBITRATION · GUJARAT HIGH COURT

Gujarat HC bars HDFC Bank from late arbitration switch

In a decision dated 4 November 2026 and reported on 10 November, Justice Maulik J. Shelat rejected HDFC Bank Ltd's attempt to move a pending suit to arbitration, because its predecessor bank had never filed a timely Section 8 application, which is a request asking the court to send the dispute to arbitration. By then the suit had reached the defence evidence stage, and the report does not give the amount in dispute.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

CFOs of companies that took over contracts through a merger or acquisition are exposed, because the successor is bound by the procedural choices its predecessor made. This week, list every pending suit tied to a contract with an arbitration clause and confirm that the right to arbitrate was raised at the first opportunity.

INSOLVENCY · NCLT ALLAHABAD

NCLT Allahabad admits Sybly insolvency over ₹1.50 crore loan

By an order pronounced on 27 October 2026 and reported on 10 November, NCLT Allahabad admitted Sital Leasing and Finance Ltd's Section 7 petition, which is a lender's application to start insolvency, against Sybly Industries Ltd over a ₹1.50 crore loan default. The tribunal began the insolvency process, imposed a moratorium freezing claims against the company and appointed Mohit Goyal as interim resolution professional, holding that an offer to repay did not erase a default that had already happened.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Promoters of mid-sized borrowers who expect an offer to pay to hold off a lender are exposed, because once a default is proved the tribunal can admit the case anyway. This week, reconcile every overdue loan and get any settlement or restructuring signed in writing before the lender files.

CAPITAL MARKETS · EXCHANGE FILING

Bajaj Finance allots ₹5,800 crore warrants to Bajaj Finserv

On 10 November 2026, Bajaj Finance allotted 57.43 million warrants at ₹1,010 each to its promoter and holding company Bajaj Finserv, an issue worth about ₹5,800 crore, according to an exchange filing reported by Business Today. The report does not confirm that the full exercise price has been paid.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Minority shareholders and family offices holding Bajaj Finance stock will be diluted once the warrants convert into shares. This week, read the conversion terms and timeline in the filing, and do not count the full ₹5,800 crore as cash received until the money is actually paid in.

CAPITAL MARKETS · EXCHANGE FILING

Bajaj Finance readies ₹11,700 crore QIP this week

Business Today reported on 11 November 2026 that Bajaj Finance may launch an ₹11,700 crore qualified institutional placement, which is a share sale only to large institutional investors, as early as this week. It belongs to a previously approved fundraising programme of up to ₹17,500 crore that also covers the Bajaj Finserv warrants, and it had not been launched as of the report.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Institutional allocators and NRI investors who hold Bajaj Finance stock are exposed to how a large new issue of shares is priced. This week, watch for the placement document and floor price before adding to or trimming your position.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Every item today turns on paper and timing: a warrant, a placement, a substitution order or a missed procedural window decides who controls an asset long before any money changes hands. As a business owner, read every filing and review every pending case now, because this week forums rewarded parties who moved early and penalised those who waited.
