SECURITIES · SEBI

SEBI notifies revamped settlement rules introducing fast track

On 9 October 2026, SEBI notified the SEBI Settlement Proceedings Regulations 2026, creating a formulaic base calculation and a fast track route capped at ₹10 lakh. The framework mandates separate billing for wrongful gain disgorgement to prevent double counting across market participants.

THE READ

Market participants gain predictable resolution pathways for minor compliance defaults. Boards can expedite non-remedial settlements under ₹10 lakh without entering lengthy bilateral proceedings.

ENFORCEMENT · PMLA ADJUDICATING AUTHORITY

ED attaches properties worth ₹34.91 crore in fraud case

On 9 October 2026, the ED Jaipur Zonal Office issued a provisional attachment order seizing properties in the Nexa Evergreen investment scheme. The move brings total attached or frozen assets in the ₹2,676 crore investigation to ₹52 crore.

THE READ

PMLA enforcement continues aggressive pre-trial asset freezing against pooled investment schemes. Dealmakers acquiring distress assets must conduct deep title diligence to clear money laundering encumbrances.

ARBITRATION · DELHI HIGH COURT

Man Industries withdraws Section 11 arbitration petition

On 9 October 2026, the Delhi High Court allowed Man Industries India Limited to withdraw its Section 11 petition against Indian Oil Corporation Limited. The court formally dismissed proceedings following submissions by petitioner counsel in ARB.P. 69/2026.

THE READ

Unilateral court applications often yield to out-of-court dispute resolution or procedural restructuring. Corporate litigants preserve commercial relationships by withdrawing premature tribunal appointment requests.

INSOLVENCY · NCLT ADMINISTRATIVE BENCH

NCLT suspends Mumbai Bench Court VI over vacancies

On 9 October 2026, the NCLT President issued an administrative order under Rule 16d suspending all operations of Mumbai Bench Court VI from 13 October 2026. Pending insolvency and company matters will undergo temporary redistribution across remaining active benches.

THE READ

Judicial vacancies at primary tribunal benches threaten strict IBC resolution timelines. Corporate counsel must prepare for docket reassignments and potential hearing delays across Mumbai CIRP proceedings.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY · DELHI HIGH COURT

Delhi High Court orders Crocs to pay Bata costs

On 10 October 2026, the Delhi High Court ordered Crocs Inc. to pay ₹24.63 lakh in costs to Bata India Limited under the Commercial Courts Act 2015. The order followed the dismissal of Crocs design infringement action after its registration was cancelled.

THE READ

Courts increasingly enforce costs-follow-the-cause principles against unsuccessful IP litigants. IP counsel must evaluate underlying registration vulnerability before launching aggressive design infringement suits.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Regulators and courts are enforcing stricter administrative boundaries and financial consequences across commercial disciplines. From SEBI structured settlement formulas and PMLA asset attachments to high court cost awards against failed IP litigants, institutional compliance costs continue to rise. Concurrently, tribunal capacity constraints in insolvency proceedings highlight the need for adaptable litigation management strategies.
