Pooja Diam LLP enters corporate insolvency process

A public announcement initiated a corporate insolvency resolution process for Pooja Diam LLP on 27 August 2026, setting the creditor claims deadline for 9 September 2026. Anil Kashi Drolia is recorded as both the applicant and the insolvency professional.

THE READ

Creditors must immediately collate proof of claims to meet the compressed filing window. Early participation in the committee of creditors is essential to direct asset preservation strategies.

ED seizes thirty-three crore in Vatika PMLA searches

The Enforcement Directorate searched seven premises linked to Vatika Limited and its promoter-directors in Delhi-NCR on 25 August 2026, with details disclosed on 27 August 2026. The agency seized luxury assets, bank accounts, and records totaling approximately thirty-three crore rupees.

THE READ

This aggressive asset freeze severely impairs operational liquidity and corporate title integrity. Affected management must mount an immediate challenge before the adjudicating authority under the PMLA.

Asaya closes eighty-eight crore Series A financing

Indian direct-to-consumer skincare company Asaya raised eighty-eight crore rupees on 27 August 2026 in a Series A round featuring primary and secondary capital. RPSG Capital led the round alongside institutional participants at a reported post-money valuation of four hundred crore rupees.

THE READ

The inclusion of secondary liquidity signals resilient investor appetite for scaling domestic personal care brands. Founders must ensure robust corporate governance to sustain valuation multiples in subsequent rounds.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Regulatory compliance, aggressive asset tracing under anti-money laundering laws, and formal insolvency admissions dominate current corporate legal workflows. Across markets and enforcement forums, authorities are tightening operational timelines and enforcing strict asset freezes. Stakeholders must prioritize immediate risk mitigation and rigorous claims documentation to navigate this intense regulatory climate.
