CROSS-BORDER RECOVERY · MADRAS HIGH COURT

Singapore decree reaches guarantor's Chennai family home

On 12 November 2026 a Division Bench of the Madras High Court dismissed a co-owner spouse's appeal and upheld the attachment of a guarantor's half share in jointly owned Saidapet property to enforce Indian Bank's Singapore decree. The decree against the guarantor of Marg International Dredging Pte Ltd is for US$3,816,326.68 plus interest running since 24 May 2014, and a vessel had already been auctioned for ₹5.75 crore.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Promoters and NRIs who signed personal guarantees for overseas group borrowing are exposed, and so are spouses who co-own Indian property with them. Check this week whether any foreign guarantee you signed is still live and whether your spouse's claimed share in joint property is backed by proof of their own contribution.

M&A · CCI AND NSE

Adani Energy completes 100% Intellismart buyout after CCI nod

Adani Energy Solutions Ltd disclosed to the National Stock Exchange that it completed the purchase of 100% of Intellismart Infrastructure on 12 November 2026, following Competition Commission of India approval. The filing summary does not disclose the price paid or identify the sellers.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Promoters selling a business to a listed group are exposed in the gap between signing and CCI clearance, when price adjustments and walk-away rights bite. Check this week that any pending sale agreement says clearly who carries the cost of regulatory delay and what happens if clearance comes with conditions.

DEBT FINANCING · PRIVATE LENDER TALKS

Adani seeks US$6.4 billion from a dozen global banks

The New Indian Express reported on 13 November 2026 that Adani Group is approaching nearly a dozen international lenders, including MUFG, SMBC, Mizuho, First Abu Dhabi Bank and DBS, for up to US$6.4 billion. About US$2.9 billion would fund Adani Ports' proposed Evos acquisition and US$3.5 billion would refinance debt tied to the ACC and Ambuja purchase; nothing is committed and the Evos deal has not closed.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Promoters funding acquisitions with group-level borrowing are exposed when new debt and refinancing are tied together and one leg slips. Check this week whether your own loan documents carry cross-default clauses, meaning terms that let one lender call its loan because a different deal of yours stalled.

CAPITAL MARKETS · SEBI

SEBI clears Sembcorp Green Infra's ₹3,750 crore fresh-issue IPO

Sembcorp Green Infra received SEBI's final observations on 13 November 2026 for an IPO of up to ₹3,750 crore, according to a CNBC-TV18 report. The issue is entirely fresh equity with no offer for sale, and the proceeds are earmarked to repay borrowings of the company and its subsidiaries.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Promoters and family offices preparing a listing are exposed to how the use of proceeds reads, because an IPO that retires debt is priced and scrutinised differently from one that pays out selling shareholders. Check this week whether your draft offer document states the use of proceeds this plainly and whether any promoter sale component will draw investor pushback.

IBC · NCLAT CHENNAI

NCLAT orders ₹4.76 crore refund over hidden title defects

In Pankaj Kumar and Chandra v Praiseworth Infra, reported by LiveLawBiz on 12 November 2026, the NCLAT Chennai Bench set aside a forfeiture and ordered the liquidator to repay ₹4,75,84,375 to the auction buyers within six weeks. It held that an 'as is where is' sale does not excuse a liquidator from disclosing material title defects and available title papers, but it refused the buyers' claim for 18% interest.

WHO IS EXPOSED · WHAT TO CHECK

Family offices and promoters buying distressed property through IBC auctions are exposed both ways: forfeiture if they walk away and no interest on recovered money if they skipped their own diligence. Check this week that any pending auction bid rests on your own title search and a written request to the liquidator for every title document.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Every item today is money crossing a boundary: a Singapore decree reaching a Chennai home, a listed group borrowing abroad to buy at home, an IPO raised to retire debt, and a liquidator's silence costing buyers their deposit. For a business owner the lesson is that the paper you sign or skip at the start decides who pays when the deal turns.
