SEBI F&O Manipulation Order Impounds ₹28.12 Crore

SEBI issued an ex parte interim order on 16 September 2026 against stockbroker Prsaar Sampada, Chaubara Eats, and four individuals alleging coordinated cross-segment derivatives manipulation. It directed the impounding of ₹28.12 crore in alleged unlawful gains and restrained the noticees from equity derivatives pending investigation.

THE READ

This action demonstrates direct enforcement scrutiny of cross-segment derivatives strategies rather than mere policy consultation. Regulators are increasingly targeting structured pricing maneuvers between futures and options segments.

SUPREME COURT · INSOLVENCY APPEAL

Supreme Court Restores IBC Appeal Dismissed for E-Filing Glitch

The Supreme Court in Regional Provident Fund Commissioner II v Ms Mamta Binani reported on 17 September 2026 restored an NCLAT appeal dismissed due to a one-day limitation delay. The Court held litigants should not suffer prejudice from technical malfunctions in digital filing infrastructure.

THE READ

The ruling ensures that time-sensitive Section 61 appeals remain viable despite administrative or systemic digital hurdles. It protects procedural rights from becoming mechanically punitive due to technical faults.

ED Directs National Scrutiny of Suspicious IBC Resolution Plans

The Enforcement Directorate directed regional offices on 17 September 2026 to identify abusive corporate insolvency resolution processes involving promoter re-entry, extreme haircuts, and inflated related-party claims. The review follows instances including Richa Industries where banks accepted a 94 percent haircut.

THE READ

This signals a systemic enforcement push at the intersection of insolvency proceedings and money laundering laws. Investigators must still establish a distinct predicate offense and proceeds of crime nexus despite regulatory pressure.

Advent International Signs ₹3,150 Crore Primary Stake in Yatharth Hospitals

Advent International entered into a definitive agreement on 17 September 2026 to infuse ₹3,150 crore of primary capital into Yatharth Hospital and Trauma Care Services. Upon closing, Advent will hold a 24.9 percent minority stake while the Tyagi family remains the largest shareholder.

THE READ

This transaction provides substantial growth capital for hospital network expansion rather than a secondary exit for existing investors. It highlights ongoing private equity confidence in scaled Indian healthcare platforms.

Yonex Acquires 50 Percent Voting Rights in Sunrise Sports India

Japan-based Yonex Co. announced a transaction on 16 September 2026 to acquire a stake in Delhi distributor Sunrise Sports India to establish it as an equity-method affiliate. Financial terms were undisclosed with closing expected by December 2026.

THE READ

The move elevates a standard distribution relationship into a direct strategic control structure. It reflects foreign brand owners seeking tighter corporate alignment over Indian consumer and sports supply chains.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Recent regulatory and judicial interventions highlight heightened scrutiny across corporate transactions, enforcement proceedings, and dispute resolution mechanisms. Regulators and courts are actively tightening oversight on market manipulation, systemic insolvency practices, and foreign investment structures. Dealmakers must navigate these rigorous compliance standards to safeguard transaction timelines and corporate governance.
